

DONATION FORM

Brenda Marshall (far right) leads toddlers and their caregivers in a MusicPlay class, a fun but structured class that builds solid musical foundations in young children.

Jennifer Fisher, AASPA Faculty Piano Instructor and student, Sarah Myers enjoy a lesson.

AASPA jazz combo students rehearse in the new jazz studio.

We greatly appreciate your support! Your gifts help to keep our programs running, but most importantly, your generosity helps to provide music lessons to families who would not otherwise be able to afford them.

THANK YOU!
